

The End

Little Mix

I can't keep breaking up with you
You messed with my heart, baby
Now it's black and blue Love isn't fair so I swear
That this time this is the end And I can't keep lying, lying to myself
Oh, thinking you'll love me right
But you never will It's too much to bare (too much to bare) so I swear (this time I swear)
That this time this is the end
I mean it, baby Oh, said I'm gonna leave but I'm never leaving, now I know that I really don't need ya, had your fun
Now the party's done and you beg on the floor as I walk out the door, boy, we're through, oh
All the tears I cried, all the lonely nights, boy, I lost my mind but now I'm sure (now I'm sure, now I'm sure)
You can say what you want but love isn't here anymore
And I won't be missing, missing you (ah)
And no one can love you the way I used to do (ah, ah)
But love isn't fair and I swear
That this time this is the end, oh
I promise, baby
This is the end
You know it's the end
Oh, whoa, yeah, yeah
This is the end
