 Makin' all the jaws drop outside the clubs

 New sheriff's in town The crew is called Swollen
 Remember the name
 The heat that we holdin'
 The Members spit flames Yo', it's unfair to put us in the same class
 Before the ice melts I drain the whole glass
 Ahh, nothing but fumes are left
 I'm often half cocked talkin' under my breath Girls in the bathroom perfume on the chest
 So when they walk through the club, damn she fresh
 They shift off the wall like zero-gravity
 We hit you all we don't spare no casualties Glasses clink, asses shake
 Some chick wearing pink rocking boots made of snake
 Cop this disk and tell the disk jock
 To let this rock to the two on his wrist watch There's a new Sheriff in town
 Don't make my pistol whistle like sweet Georgia Brown
 We got this song stuck in your ear
 With the sound so original there's nothing to clear The Crew's Thick
