

Angel

Redrama

It's not something you plan, no
It hurts before you let go Looking at an Angel in a world full of Devils
And the moon is full, Chance is we're a beautiful catastrophe asking you,
you asking me Now can it be that this your last first time?
Aint right and both of us know it Tonight we're lost in the moment You got vertigo c'mon girl you don't got to worry thought you not falling We keep talking like it's your past Thought you're not done with that chapter
You feel a subtle touch of my hand
I got your heart beating little bit faster Cus neither one of us wnt this thing to stop I want your happy, your sad and all you got Take care of you you, all you got to do is say somy AngelI'll forever wait, wait
Ever waiting
We can do just what we wanna
You won't fall, just let me hold you
Will we ever make it, ever make it Ever make itI don't know, guess if we say so
All I know is you're my angel Wanna give it, don't wanna take it spend the rest of my days with you long as I have to wait, this is more than infatuation Now my eyes are with glowing with sinning Your thighs are showing forbidden? (is it?) touching, not, touching dying or living Acting on feelings not on opinions
You got to go, really?We got a whole minute, wait
You don't have to go yet,
No they have to know yet,Cus neither one of us want this thing to stop
I see yout tears, let me drink every drop

I know my timing is bad, I know it's late tough. my Angel I'll forever wait, wait
Ever waiting
We can do just what we wanna
You won't fall, just let me hold you
Will we ever make it, ever make it Ever make it
I don't know, guess if we say so
All I know is you're my angel
