

Sisters (En Directo)

Divididos

Through the course of an embrace
Our sisters felt a striking hand
Their fear was raised by the light of day
Their quiet rage sleeps with them tonight
We have a reason to ban our heart
We have a reason to change our mind

Through the course of an embrace
Our sisters felt a striking hand
Their fear was raised by the light of day
Their quiet rage sleeps with them tonight
We have a reason to ban our heart
We have a reason to change our mind
Sister midnight, sister moon
Like me so much don't think I'll see them soon
