

This Bitter Earth / On the Nature of Daylight

Dinah Washington

This - bitter earth
Well, What a fruit it bearsOooh
This - bitter earthAnd if my life is like the dustOooh
That hides the glow of a roseWhat good am I
Heaven only knowsNo, this bitter Earth
Yes, can be so coldToday you're young
Too soon you're oldBut while a voice
Within me cries
I'm sure someone may answer my callAnd if my life is like the dustWhat good am I
Heaven only knowsNo, this bitter Earth
Yes, can be so coldToday you're young
Too soon you're oldBut while a voice
Within me criesI'm sure someone may answer my callAnd this bitter earth ooooooh
May not be ohhhh, so bitter after allThis - bitter earth
No, this bitter Earth
What good is loveMmmmmmmmm
That no one shares
And if my lifeis like the dust
OoohThat hides the glow of a rose
What good am I
What good am I
Heaven only knows
