

Someday (I'm Coming Back)

Lisa Stansfield

Someday I'm coming back and it won't be long
Before you call me and tell me to come home
Someday I'm coming back and it won't be long Before I'm home, home and in your arms What did I do, my darling that made you send me running
Told you to cast me down and throw me out
What can I tell you honey, if I don't know what I've done
All I can hope is that you ask me to come back home Someday I'm coming back and it won't be long
Before you call me and tell me to come home
Someday I'm coming back and it won't take long Before I'm home, home and in your arms
Even in stormy weather, we always stuck together
You always kept me near, we're so sincere
So why so sudden the change of heart?
Why do I feel like I've done wrong?
When all that I want is that you ask me to come back home Someday I'm coming back and it won't be long
Before you call me and tell me to come home
Someday I'm coming back and it won't be long Before I'm home, home and in your arms Someday, someday
I never wanted anyone so much
Someday, someday
Baby, baby
Someday, someday So why so sudden the change of heart?
Why do I feel like I've done wrong?
When all that I want is that you ask me to come back home
Someday I'm coming back and it won't be long Before you call me and beg me to come home
Someday I'm coming back and it won't be long Before I'm home, home and in your arms, in your arms Someday, someday
Someday, someday
Someday, someday
