

Falling (Featuring Moya Brennan)

Schiller

I cannot feel you anymore it feels like fate has come and locked all my doors.
My dreams have all faded and died lost the only soul that I wanted by my side

My visions of you still wash ashore.

Like a forgotten friend knocking at my door.

The soul has slowly died in me.

I can't be anymore Cause without you i can't be.

Blowing in the summer winds.

Falling with the stars.

Dreams are just destiny that some day shall be ours

Sitting Staring at this place.

Watch the look of life slowly leave my face.

I cannot live without your love.

I know that in the end.

I'll just give it up.

Blowing in the summer winds.

Falling with the stars.

Dreams are just destiny that some day shall be ours
