With You There to Help Me

Jethro Tull

In days of peace Sweet smelling summer nights Of wine and song Dusty pavements, burning feetWhy am I crying? I want to know How can I smile and then make it right? For sixty days and eighty nights And not givin' in and lose the fightI'm going back to the ones that I know With whom I can be what I want to be And just one week for the feeling to go And with you there to help me, then it probably will I won't go down Acting the same old play Give sixty days for just one night Don't think I'd make it but then I mightI'm going back to the ones that I know With whom I can be what I want to be And just one week for the feeling to go And with you there to help me, then it probably willI'm going back to the ones that I know With whom I can be what I want to be And just one week for the feeling to go And with you there to help me, then it probably will I'm going back to the ones that I know With whom I can be what I want to be And just one week for the feeling to go And with you there to help me, then it probably will Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941.
