

Same Old (feat. Drew Bjorksten)

Ethan Hopkins

She stood there just as confused as the rest and Oh my shaken senses were so high off the thought of her flesh and ooh ooh ooh ooh Her line of her smile makes her my crutch And her curves begged to be adored by some graceless touch and baby I'd pray to you you ooh So why'd you want to keep me
If you were only gonna leave me
When she gave her all away
I had nothing to take But it's the same old same old Found my lady with some other man
It's the same sight found my lady hold some other hand
And ooh ooh
ooh ooh
She likes that stripped down broken romance Lord, got me on my knees beggin' you for this dance and you you ooh So tell me
why'd you want to keep me
If you were only gonna leave me
When she gave her all away
She just had nothing to give But it's the same old same old
Found my lady with some other man
It's the same sight found my lady
hold some other hand
And ooh ooh
ooh ooh (guitar solo) Lonesome retribution is my only friend now Lonesome retribution is my only friend
So save me, save me, save me from the sadness Save me, save me, save me from the silence Ooh ooh
ooh ooh
ooh ooh
ooh ooh
