

Frozen In Slow Motion

Brett Dennen

Goodbye woman of my dreams
You were running for steam
I got swept in your slip stream.
Like a vision, you came strong
Then you were gone, and you moved on.
And all around me, inside moving, so fast,
Im still tender from the crash.
Feels like im frozen in slow motion,
You get further away x2
Now the curtains closing
Are you a tragedy?
Are you a comedy?
i was romancing on the phone,
Dancing with a stone
That i could not move alone.
And all around me, inside moving, so fast,
Im still tender from the crash.
Feels like im frozen in slow motion,
You get further away x2
(Instrumental)
Goodbye dreamer I have drawn,
You belong among the love songs.
Feels like im frozen in slow motion,
You get further away
Feels like im frozen in slow motion
You get further away, further, further away X2
You get further away
