

Underneath It All

Pillar

I can see you stepping to me just by the look in your eyes
You think that I can't be who I am if I don't live out your life
But that's alright'Cause I know who I am underneath it all
And I'm gonna be who I am through it all I can see you talking to me, but I can't hear what you say
And all the words coming outta your mouth have got me moving away
But that's okay
But I won't walk away from the Place that I need to stay
I don't wanna be like you, I don't wanna be like me
I wanna be like I Am
The One that made me, me
