

Start Again (feat. Becky Jean Williams)

Kaskade

It's my hope, it's my fear
It's my dream, all my tears
It's a start, it's an end
Then I start again, I start again
It's my hope, it's my fear
It's my dream, all my tears
It's a start, it's an end
Then I start again, I start again
Feelings that I don't know
Mornings when I can't go
Like I've lost my way again
Then I stumble as I rise
If you look into my eyes
There's a chance that you will get in
It's my hope, it's my fear
It's my dream, all my tears
It's a start, it's an end
Then I start again, I start again
The reason is a guess
The place where that is left
Vision's not just what I see
The world is on my side
The reason left to hide
The moments that it made me
Hold my dreams, my tears
It's the starting
Then I start again, I start again
It's my hope, it's my fear
It's my dream, all my tears
It's a start, it's an end
Then I start again, I start again
It's my hope, it's my fear
It's my dream, all my tears
It's a start, it's an end
Then I start again, I start again
It's my hope
