Sweet as carrot cake, faking plus you don't eat turkey bacon
I don't get down like that, I don't get down neither Cuban Linx skeezer, why you acting like a rap teaser
I'm like the jury exchanged plus arranged
Nigga you small change I only fuck with Figaro chains Analysing Miss Clairol, Fendi down mascara on

She this book cover lady that be blowing up the spot
While my heart was racing, like the hands on the clock
I step live I think she see me putting out the pot
Peace Dot, I'm so happy to see you at the rendezvous How's life today your hands are softer than Camay too your hairdo way more class than Halle Berry Caught visions of me and you riding on the ferry
Plus your daughter Kiki talk to my man Merry
I order me a Sex on the Beach with the cherry
I order her a Vermidi on ice, sounds nice
She elegant, pretty eyes, glasses, intelligentWhispered in my ear that she's celibate
Whispered back to her ear we don't have to go there
As I grab the hand set her politely in the chair

As we stopped to stare at one another
Black sister, the brother
I'm thinking all the time how she could be my lover
Chorus: Teddy Pendergrass
Just another helpless
Fool in love is what I am
Love was never born to say, goodbye
Love was never born to say, goodbye
Just another helpless
Fool in love is what I...
Verse Three: Ghostface Killah
What's happening brown sugar? Say you look so good today
Ankle bracelet rapt around your leg
Here have a seat, complementary drinks is on me Bartender Chevalier châteaux at table three Luxurious rings, eyes sparkling
What's your name sugar? Juanita Cash Hawkins Your complexion gives a reflection of sometime a black woman just need to be loved Quiet and shy, baby girl my gift got you high
Made you wanna hit me with the keys to that file
Just joking baby, I have a sharp sense of humour
Wish I would of bumped into your frame a lot sooner What's your physical degree, thirty one, thirty three Half Hawaiian with a slight touch of Chinese Seen you working at a law firm, on Fifth Avenue
Three blocks from the Gucci spot is where I trapped you Yo, I'm all into older woman, who's happy living Love kids and, keep all up and this in the crib and not afraid to doubt need a God on your side
We holding hands til death do us apart and then we slide Earring in the left side of your nose love my combo
Should have left wiz a thousand times maybe tonight though
But you sexy motherfucker damn what's the recipe?
You make a nigga wanna GOD DAMN
Can you cook darling, at the stove you're revolving Bake macaroni, turkey wings, a nigga starving Here take my number let me pull the chair from under
I had fun plus your backyard speak with thunder
Chorus: Teddy Pendergrass
Love was never born to say, goodbye (5x)
Just another helpless fool in love is what I am (repeat to fade)
