Breaking It Up

Lykke Li

If you're going abroad I can't help you

If you're crossing the street I might be there

If you're going abroad I can't help you

If you're crossing the street I might be thereIf you're going abroad I can't help you

If you're crossing the street I might be there

If you're going abroad I can't help you

If you're crossing the street I might be thereIf you give it a minute, it's wrong

If you give it a minute, it's gone

If we're just waiting a second too long

Darling, I'll leave and you won't come alongSo give me the reason to stay

Give me the reason to wait

You know I don't look to get caught

'Cause darling, we're here but my true love is not

Breaking it up before it's on

Breaking it up, it's already gone

Breaking it up, I didn't mean to fraud

Breaking it upI might be there

If you're going abroad I can't help you

If you're crossing the street I might be there

If you're going abroad I can't help you

If you're crossing the street I might be thereAnd I call you baby, I will and I do

Persuade you in though I know that we're through

I let you think that I'm yours when I'm not

Keep you here though I'm ready to drop the last line hereBreaking it up before it's on

Breaking it up, it's already gone

Breaking it up, I didn't mean to fraud

Breaking it up

I might be there

If you're going abroad I can't help you

If you're crossing the street I might be there

If you're going abroad I can't help you

If you're crossing the street I might be thereIf you're going abroad I can't help you

If you're crossing the street I might be there

If you're going abroad I can't help you

If you're crossing the street I might be thereBreaking it up

Breaking it up

Breaking it upI might be there

If you're going abroad I can't help you

If you're crossing the street I might be there

If you're going abroad I can't help you

If you're crossing the street I might be thereIf you're going abroad I can't help you

If you're crossing the street I might be there

If you're going abroad I can't help you If you're crossing the street I might be there Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.
