

I Want In

88rising, AUGUST 08 & NIKI

Tryna be with you is crazy
You be on your own shit daily
Peyote with that rum make you go papa
You only show your love inside my casa
These drugs ain't keeping you off my mind
Good lord to have that ass one more time
These problems that we have ain't gon stop us
And breaking this shit off is not an option
Keepin' secrets from me babe, and I want in
You've been crooning on your own, and I want in
Drinkin' til you see the sun, and I want in Even when you're fucking wrong, and I want in Keepin' secrets from me babe, and I want in
You've been crooning on your own, and I want in
Drinkin' til you see the sun, and I want in
Even when you're fucking wrong, I want in
I want in yeah
What's it gon' take for you to see it babe
See this for the things that it ain't
It's bound to get ugly one of these days
But it's okay, you know we're grown, oh, oh, oh
Still I don't want to see you go, no, no, no
You know my love isn't guaranteed
But I'm there when you need some company
If you jump then you should jump at your own caution
Angel forever, but right now I know I want in
Keepin' secrets from me babe, and I want in
You've been crooning on your own, and I want in
Drinkin' til you see the sun, and I want in
Even when you're fucking wrong, I want in
Keepin' secrets from me babe, and I want in
You've been crooning on your own, and I want in
Drinkin' til you see the sun, and I want in
Even when you're fucking wrong, I want in
Yeah
