

Everyone's Gone to the Movies

Steely Dan

Kids if you want some fun
Mr. Lapage is your man
He's always laughing, having fun
Showing his films in the den Come on, come on
Soon you will be eighteen
I think you know what I mean
Don't tell your mama
Your daddy or mama
They'll never know where you been Everyone's gone to the movies
Now we're alone at last
Everyone's gone to the movies
Now we're alone at last
Listen to what I say
He wants to show you the way
Right down the hallway with open arms
To teach you a new game to play Come on, come on Soon it will be too late
Bobbing for apples can wait
We know you're used to
Sixteen or more
Sorry, we only have eight Everyone's gone to the movies
Now we're alone at last
Everyone's gone to the movies
Now we're alone at last Everyone's gone to the movies
Now we're alone at last
Everyone's gone to the movies
Now we're alone at last
Kids if you want some fun
See what you never have seen
Take off your cheaters and set right down
Start the projection machine Everyone's gone to the movies
Now we're alone at last
Everyone's gone to the movies
Now we're alone at last Everyone's gone to the movies
Now we're alone at last
Everyone's gone to the movies
Now we're alone at last Everyone's gone to the movies
Now we're alone at last
Everyone's gone to the movies
Now we're alone at last
