

Shoegaze

Alabama Shakes

Can't wait for night to come that's when the sun really begins, my band cools out when that day is done, and then I tuck myself in, it ain't no fun to be alone, but I was a night or two lonely, and I begin to realize that I can't [?] everything everything, I can't lie.

Let's go make memories, precious and temporary.

Of all the people I meet, I wanna take you out with me.

It ain't no fun to be alone, well I was a night or two lonely, and I begin to realize, hey, I can't help everything, everything.

Oh, I can't lie.

Jesus he's waitin' on me.

Just like he always does.
