

My Baby

Auburn

I know sometimes you
Say I dont really express myself
Well, in the definition of normal
But music is like my expression
And, I know you dont doubt that I love you, but,
I know you wonder sometimes
You wonder if I notice that smile
And the way that you change up your style
And, the way your face scrunches up when youre mad
But baby just know I know
And I write about it all the time

1:

Yeah, him and I, me and him
Cant think of one without the other, synonym
Blossom like a rose, add water not gremlin
Voice stimulates my heart, no adrenalin
Better than the richest man in the world
Would rather have a love than the bribe of some pearls
Most brothers want a nut, so they looking for a squirrel
When a man wants a woman he dont settle for a girl This love is worth more, its priceless,
And I kiss every inch of him,
Exciteds what I get
I can care less of who might not like it
Celebrating love, and youre not invited
I know, people look at us and
They wonder why were attached
Because our skin dont match
But Ill say yo!
Thats my baby
Thats my, Thats my
Thats my baby
They dont phase me,
Thats my, Thats my
Thats my baby
Thats my baby Thats my baby
Thats my, Thats my
Thats my baby
They cant persuade me
Thats my baby
Thats my, Thats my
Thats my baby
Thats my baby I guess we didnt think much about it

Started as friends, merely rerouted
Did you know that your smiles so perfect babe
Makes me feel like a child on a summer day
Ok, dont wanna get all mushy
I found an old pic of your tushy
The day you climbed out the pool,
And the girls drooled at the crack you exposed so loosely!
We have so much fun together babe
And Ill love you big where ever babe
And only God controls forever babe
But I promise its never gonna be never babe
We just want to share this love
And I dont care who judges me
Because real loves skin deep And Ill say yo!
Thats my baby
Thats my, Thats my
Thats my baby
They dont phase me,
Thats my, Thats my
Thats my baby
Thats my baby
Ayo
Thats my baby
Thats my, Thats my
Thats my baby
They cant persuade me
Thats my baby
Thats my, Thats my
Thats my baby
Thats my baby Dont make a big deal out of this, you know
I know, I know Im the best girlfriend in the world
And in space
Its okay, its okay
I love you too
