

The Rise of Chaos

Accept

Everybody's out to get me
This new world's trying to take me down
Break free but it won't let me
Right now there's only one way out All fight for survival
In this apocalyptic maze
Caught in a downward spiral
Right through a cataclysmic blaze All hell around you
Just a continual descent
Bedlam surrounds you
It's the beginning of the end
It's the rise of chaos
The rats will rule this sinking ship
The rise of chaos
Surrender your souls and come to grips No rules, laws or borders
Killing for guns and gasoline
This is the new world order
A blackened future unforeseen All hell around you
Just a continual descent
Bedlam surrounds you
It's the beginning of the end
It's the rise of chaos
The rats will rule this sinking ship
The rise of chaos
Surrender your souls and come to grips
