

Today

Dirty Vegas

Here, watching the road
I see your face
Your fragile face
Now is winter in June
Celebrate, celebrate.
Take no prisoners
War is already being won
There's no distance
Lost too long.
Tonight, look what you've done
You sold your soul
For a piece of gold.
Take no prisoners
War is already being won
There's no distance
Lost too long.
Today, today, today
Today, today, today
Today, today.
Perfect features
Dirty little creatures
Running in the hallways
Glowing in the mornings
Covered inside me
See you next Tuesday
Let me down, let me down.
