

Breaking Point

Bullet for My Valentine

Spinning out mind (Poison)
That's headache taste on the tip of my tongue
I can't take you (Medicine)
You're so bitter, better get up and run Warning! Eye for an eye
When revenge comes charging
Warning! Eye for an eye
You won't see it coming
.You won't see it coming.If you carry on
You won't win that fight
If you take me on
You'll find my breaking point
Please don't test my (Patience)
My short fuse you don't wanna ignite
Do not scratch the (Surface)
Don't wake the beast 'cause he's ready to bite Warning!
Eye for an eye
When revenge comes knocking
Warning!
Eye for an eye
You won't feel it coming
.You won't feel it coming.If you carry on
You won't win that fight
If you take me on
You'll find my breaking point
Everybody's got a breaking point
Nobody wants to see that side of me
Stop pushing, 'cause I won't back down
Nobody's gonna bring that by me It's an eye for an eye
It's an eye for an eye
It's an eye for an eye
It's an eye for an eye If you carry on
You won't win that fight
If you take me on
You'll find my breaking point I'm at my breaking point!
