Southern Sun

Paul Oakenfold

Piece by piece

I release

Once was mine

Now undoneTurned blue

Like New Orleans

And went down like

A southern sunI still feel you

Beneath my skin

I am tempted

To throw my senses in Cause it's easier to fly

Than to face another night

In southern sun

And your love is all around

Piece by piece

I release

Once was mine

Now undoneTurned blue

Like New Orleans

And went down like

A southern sunI still feel you

Beneath my skin

I am tempted

To throw my senses in Cause it's easier to fly

Than to face another night

In southern sun

And your love is all around

In the air to set me free

You last like a song

I'm deflated

I am pieces on the wind

UnrelatedI still feel you

Beneath my skin

I am tempted

To throw my senses in Cause it's easier to fly

Than to face another night

In southern sun

And your love is all around

In the air to set me free Cause it's easier to fly

In the air to set me free
