

Pirate In the Water

Santigold

Na na na na na na Why you're burning away the things going down
Why you're burning away the things going down
You got the moon, you got the moon
Yeah is a pirate in the water
Is the price to [?] tonight
On the [?] smooth but it's tempted in the light
Yeah, burn out the roots you're seeking in to Don't [?] the fuckin is two
We on the look we tryin to get through [?] you can kill it [?]
Why you're burning away the things going down
You got the moon, you got the moon
Why you're burning away the things going down
You got the moon, you got the moon
Yeah out Na na na na na na Yeah When we meet to the harbor place in time and dance the light
Telling me how much to lose
You're ruthless with your life
Coming in dark [?] right through
Don't let them take you like [?] through
Right to the heart they tell you into
They rather [?] than they turn into [?]
[x2:]
Why you're burning away the things going down
You got the moon, you got the moon
Why you're burning away the things going down
You got the moon, you got the moon
