

Repeat (feat. Jessie Reyez)

Allan Rayman

Libraries of all of these memories I never touch
I only look back to see where I don't want to go
I can barely sleep, but I see it all in my dreams
Goes as far as I can see
But believe me, all I need is to believe I need [?], need to [?]
I need something to hold down
I'm out on the road, love best left alone
She's saving him for herself, not saving him for his own
Love's best left alone, tears dry on their own
The queen of the broken hearts, it feels better off left alone
She'd be better off left alone
I've seen worse, did awful things
Leave it on repeat, oh, I sing
I've seen worse, did awful things
Leave it on repeat, oh, I sing
Better off left alone, she'll be better off left alone
Better off left alone Oh, I chew her out cause she's the only one
Time and time again she tries to pull me down
Love, I love you much but we are going down
Oh, I'm on my own, I am the only one
Yeah, she's swinging moods just like my mother do
Oh, I see the tension overcoming you
Yes, the cruel intentions start to shine through
Girl, I couldn't help but fall in love with you
Oh, I like the bad bitch, too
I like 'em cause they tell the truth
Something you couldn't help but do
I know you're watching all my moves
I do believe I'm leaving you
I love when everyone just goes along
Time and time again, guy that moves beyond
Leave it all for them, I am the only one
Leave it all on you, I am the lonely one
I've seen worse, did awful things
Leave it on repeat, oh, I sing
I've seen worse, did awful things
Leave it on repeat, oh, I sing
I've seen worse, did awful things
Leave it on repeat, oh, I sing
I've seen worse, did awful things
Leave it on repeat, oh, I sing
I've seen worse, did awful things

Leave it on repeat, oh, I sing
I've seen worse, did awful things
Leave it on repeat, oh, I sing
