

Liar Liar

Avicii

Liar, liar! Oh you don't ever tell the truth
Liar, liar! Can't nobody see you're fireproof? Follow you to dust
Leavin' footprints on the clouds as we're walkin' home
Iron hearts all turn to rust
By tears and the daze on the diamond street
Kiss these apocalypse (apoca-lips)
Chasin' shadows, livin' dreams that don't exist, anymore
We need to find a way
Find a way
Find a way
Find a way
Find a way Well, we are, who we are, and we're all goin' under We're the past, we're the last, and will last until we're under
Liar, liar! Oh you don't ever tell the truth
Liar, liar! Can't nobody see you're fireproof? All closed and in your head
Counting heartbeats till the feeling's good and gone
On a dark path in a rush
Sky clears all the rain over everything
Hear these apocalypse
Where the whispers and the sand and the sun eclipse, forevermore
We need to find a way
Find a way
Find a way
Find a way
Find a way Well, we are, who we are, and we're all goin' under We're the past, we're the last, and will last until we're under Liar, liar! Oh you don't ever tell the truth
Liar, liar! Can't nobody see you're fireproof?
People talkin' but I can't hear them, noo!
I just sit there and watch them come and go
There might be something underneath it all
But at least I'll find what I'll find out in the end
At least I'll find what I'll find out in the end
