

I Might Just Stay Away

Salvador Sobral

Due to the sound of your voice
And all the accidental things that can happen
I might just stay away
Before I find what my heart is after
Due to the look in your eyes
And all the accidental things they can see
I might just stay away
Before they even look at me 'Cause someday
When I grow old
I'd be so glad
That I was strong and didn't
Fall for those lips,
Fall for those eyes,
Fall for the love of my life
Due to the look in your eyes
And all the accidental things they can see
I might just stay away
Before they even look at me 'Cause someday
When I grow old
I'd be so glad
That I was strong and didn't
Fall for those lips,
Fall for those eyes,
Fall for the love of my life
Due to the look in your eyes
And all the accidental things they can see
I might, I might just stay away
Before they even look at me
