Bullet for My Valentine

Another wasted breath
Trying to prove my innocence
I know I've sealed my fate
Another lie that brings disgrace I know you wanna see
See me hurt, make me suffer
But all that's left are all the Broken shattered pieces of our lives I wish that I could tell you so you know
There's things I'm hiding deep beneath my skin, beneath my skin
I wanna tell you so you know
There's things I'm hiding deep beneath my skin, beneath my skin So come and take my life
Let me feel your wickedness
I know I've made mistakes
So come and watch me fall from grace
I know you wanna see
See me hurt, make me suffer
I've nothing left so I'll just Sacrifice myself to make it right I wish that I could tell you so you know
There's things I'm hiding deep beneath my skin, beneath my skin
I wanna tell you so you know
There's things I'm hiding deep beneath my skin, beneath my skin I wanna tell you so you know
I wanna tell you I guess I've fucked things up
I know it's all my fault
I'm pretty sure that this will be the death to me
I guess I've fucked things up
I know it's all my fault
I'm pretty sure that this will be the death to me
I wish that I could tell you so you know
There's things I'm hiding deep beneath my skin, beneath my skin
I wanna tell you so you know
There's things I'm hiding deep beneath my skin, beneath my skin
I wish that I could tell you so you know
There's things I'm hiding deep beneath my skin, beneath my skin
I wanna tell you so you know
There's things I'm hiding deep beneath my skin, beneath my skin
