

Neighbors

Theophilus London

Uh
Hey, hey what to say
Intend to stop me this given day.
And oh, don't live in fear.
Said the neighbor that visits here. Uh, It's gonna take the stars to convince me
To prepare or to be far when it hits me
You be here or you be gone at the new speed
You a roam from the room and it gets me.
Tick-a-ah tick-a-ah I want you
Butterflies butterflies deep in to haunt you
In a nice way, and you have a nice day
And we both part ways and you feel hardly safe
Expect change and you protect names
And you say emotions gonna be the exchange
For all the lovers in the house tonight
If you feeling good than get frowst tonight
Tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight, come on
Hey, hey what to say
Intend to stop me this giveth day
And oh, don't live in fear,
Said the neighbor that visits here.
And uh-oh, who's gonna help you now?
What the mystery in this house
And no, don't blame my child. He would attempt to die for you to the end of days. We're best together when we're side by side.
You hold me down baby door by door.
Uh, I got a feelin' we should leave this town.
Travel the world in my four-by-four.
Movin away would be hell for me.
I can't explain the way you smell to me.
Hearing the wind let's hear it again
With simple ease and melodies serenading begins
Take time, get mouthed in
Let you into my house again
Hey friends, because it's so cause her.
Back in the spirit on how the holiday got her.
I make her proper and now we're enemy
Chick-ahh ah so innocent
I'll see you later but do me one favor.
Promise to be a good neighbor. +5
