

Avalon (feat. Sierra Kusterbeck)

Professor Green

We'll be kings forever. Ooh-woah!
Holding on together. Ooh-woah!
Feeling so much better. Ooh-woah!
When everything was wrong
And everything was gone
We ran to avalonIt's time to even it up
I guess a round table weren't equal enough
You can't contain me with chains, I'm free and I run free
Any enemy is coming with me when I'm done
Whatever's asked of me, I have performed
I rid through rain into the eye of the storm
Still carrying the flame, I have the torch
Failure comes at a price, I can't afford
Never been half hearted, I put my all in
Forfeited all just to answer my calling
Wearing the scars of the wars that I've fought in I should of been heading for the stars but I'm fallingSo as I may carry the weight, all the doubt I had in me has been allayed
So from now until the day that I'm carried away
I will never walk around what stands in my wayWe'll be kings forever. Ooh-woah!
Holding on together. Ooh-woah!
Feeling so much better. Ooh-woah!
When everything was wrong
And everything was gone
We ran to avalon
Ooh! And everything was gone
We ran to avalonOoh! And everything was gone
We ran to avalonI fought till I had no fight left
Risky my death, walked with conviction in every one of my steps
My strength's water enough to wash away any of the stains on my rep
Yeah, I fought off vultures, went against odds
When I was short on soldiers, I asked not for my burden to be lightened
But if I may have broader shoulders.
Never been half hearted, I put my all in
Forfeited all just to answer my calling
Wearing the scars of the wars that I've fought in
I should of been heading for the stars but I'm falling
If they ain't letting up cause neither will I
When I die, from the ashes an eagle will rise
Long as my blade and my faith'll keep me alive
Fear ain't something that you will see in my eyesI have your sword and cape
If you need them, I'll be swimming in the lake

Ooh baby, don't look down
Just take the crown We'll be kings forever. Ooh-woah!
Holding on together. Ooh-woah!
Feeling so much better. Ooh-woah!
When everything was wrong
And everything was gone
We ran to avalon Ooh! And everything was gone
We ran to avalon Ooh! And everything was gone I left the competition out for the count, no abacus
Fought for the crown, thwart thy challengers
When my massacre was ordained, I remained
And through pain forged my sword I left the competition out for the count, no abacus
Fought for the crown, thwart thy challengers
When my massacre was ordained, I remained
And through pain forged my sword, my excalibur We'll be kings forever. Ooh-woah!
Holding on together. Ooh-woah!
Feeling so much better. Ooh-woah!
When everything was wrong
And everything was gone
We ran to avalon Ooh! And everything was gone
We ran to avalon Ooh! And everything was gone
We ran to avalon
