

Denim (Remix) [feat. DJ KO]

Cypress Spring

Yeah I got some,
Moonshine in a mason jar
got a bad girl looking like a movie star.
Daisy dukes and outlaw women
it would
be a shame if they outlaw denim.
Got some,
Moonshine in a mason jar
got a bad girl looking like a movie star.
Daisy dukes and outlaw women
it would be a damn shame if they outlaw denim yeah
Nothing but denim tank tops and boots on.
Daisy dukes bikini with tattoos on.
And girl you looking good in them cut offs
so let your hair down and show off.
I'm trying to get you, over here,
take a sip of this clear,
ease your mind for bit and we can crack another beer.
The Creek water looks good when its flowing through your hair.
I knew I had you hooked when I whispered in your ear
Yeah I got some,
Moonshine in a mason jar
got a bad girl looking like a movie star.
Daisy dukes and outlaw women
it would
be a shame if they outlaw denim.
Got some,
Moonshine in a mason jar
got a bad girl looking like a movie star.
Daisy dukes and outlaw women
it would be a damn shame if they outlaw denim yeah
Nothing but them denim shorts,
summer time and they take em off.
Creek bound with there girlfriends top back with the music up.
Every time they pull up on a scene they make a heart stop .
Shimmying out of them denims gone make a jaw drop.
They do it good and they know that,
they wear em right and they show that.
Dark skin with that long hair.
Cut off jeans she don't care.
I'm thinking we should outlaw winter cause.
It'd be a shame if they outlawed denim y'all

Yeah I got some,
Moonshine in a mason jar
got a bad girl looking like a movie star.
Daisy dukes and outlaw women

We went riding round them back roads
sipping on that shine.
Couldn't keep my eyes off her
I had that denim on my mind.
We had the radio up
we were trying to get lost.
When we pulled up to the creek bank
and that denim came off
