

Rehab

Machine Gun Kelly

Yeah

Can we please start over, now that we're both sober?

Even though, that won't last long

I swear this love is a sad song

I spend my nights at the strip club

I pay them girls just to get love

I pay them to lie to me

One of them girls gave her line to me

I spent my night at the strip club

I pay them girls just to get love

I pay them to lie to me

Girl I can't even lie What do you see, when you look at me?

Don't cover my scars, let them bleed

Tell me, is this how we're supposed to be?

Well then, I'm so, I'm so happy

And we don't need rehab

We don't need rehab

We don't need rehab

We don't need rehab

We don't need rehab Would you be happy if I let you go?

Even if the highs feel low

Even if you couldn't sleep because you couldn't feel me underneath the covers when your eyes closed

I'm gettin' faded 'cause our love is faded

If I'm a monster then it's 'cause you made 'im

Beauty and the beast, now that's an ultimatum

Go with what you love, or follow what is gonna save you

Woah, I think we went somewhere we shouldn't go

Maybe it was Vodka, maybe it was blow

Maybe it was nothin', maybe it was both

Maybe it was the secrets I ain't want you to know

Maybe I wasn't leavin', maybe you made me go

Maybe there was a reason for our behavior tho

Maybe it was the pills or the house on the hills

Maybe it was the thrills, baby this love kills

What do you see, when you look at me?

Don't cover my scars, let them bleed

Tell me, is this how we're supposed to be?

Well then, I'm so, I'm so happy And we don't need rehab

We don't need rehab

We don't need rehab

We don't need rehab

We don't need rehab What do you see, when you look at me?

Don't cover my scars, let them bleed

Tell me, is this how we're supposed to be?

Well then, I'm so, I'm so happy And we don't need rehab

We don't need rehab

We don't need rehab

We don't need rehab

We don't need rehab
