Ashanti

Looking in the mirror, I can see myself standing in your arms
Holding me and kissing me and loving me
Ooo ooo you just can't get enough of me
Now I'm on the phone, telling you I'm all alone
So come on over I'm out the shower now, about to oil down,
I can't wait? till you get here I wanna be like those girls in the movies
To have a man so in love it makes him drop to his knees
She's even on his mind while he's asleep at night
? Cause that's the feeling you've given me I wanna be like those girls in the movies
To have a man so in love it makes him drop to his knees
She's even on his mind while he's asleep at night
? Cause that's the feeling you've given me
I'm almost ready to accept the truth I'm in love with you
And I wanna tell you
I'm glad that you're here, uhh and now we're face to face
In the candlelight
I'm watching your eyes you're watching mine
Layin? here with you ooo ooo, feels so good, feels so good With your hand in mine
We don't have to worry about the time
And what the future brings we can just let it be
The way you smile at me I already see
You don't wanna leave
So we can just sit back, relax and let it move naturally I wanna be like those girls in the movies
To have a man so in love it makes him drop to his knees
She's even on his mind, while he's asleep at night
? Cause that's the feeling you've given me
I wanna be like those girls in the movies
To have a man so in love it makes him drop to his knees
She's even on his mind, while he's asleep at night
? Cause that's the feeling you've given me I wanna be like those girls in the movies
To have a man so in love it makes him drop to his knees
She's even on his mind, while he's asleep at night
? Cause that's the feeling you've given me I wanna be like those girls in the movies
To have a man so in love it makes him drop to his knees
She's even on his mind, while he's asleep at night
? Cause that's the feeling you've given me Yeah, that? s the feelin? baby, baby.
