

The Good Parts

Andy Grammer

I'm sorry if I seem impatient
I'm not a fan of pleasantries
See, I get bored with the weather and what's in the news
The topics we all hide beneath
Could not care less about your day job
The gossip or ordinary stress
See, every relationship I've ever loved
It starts when someone says Show me where it hurts and give me something real
And lead me to the part of you that never really heals
And say the words that burn when they leave your mouth
You tell me your story, but don't leave the good parts out
And tell me all about your failures
The little things that make you cry
And tell me the acts that you preach but cannot seem to practice
That leave you compromised Show me where it hurts and give me something real
And lead me to the part of you that never really heals
And say the words that burn when they leave your mouth
You tell me your story, but don't leave the good parts out I've seen your trophies, your high life views
You know I would let you steal if you lost it all
And I like the castle that you have built
But are you asking still to let down the woe But show me where it hurts and give me something real
And lead me to the part of you that never really heals
And say the words that burn when they leave your mouth
Tell me your story
And show me where it hurts, yeah
Oh to the part of you that never really heals
And show me where it hurts, woah
Tell me your story, but don't leave the good parts out
Don't leave the good parts out
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://counterlikes.com/>