

Does It Matter (Denis First & Reznikov Remix)

Janieck

You are all I need
Coming from a guy that's on his knees
At least say it's fine, but honestly
I can believe it
That you ain't leavin'
The world keeps testing me
What can we expect, I am only 23
You say I am alright
But I am far too weak
I can believe it
That you ain't leavin'
I know that I've hurt you
Believe when I say
I never meant too
Treat you this way
Deserve much better
I am such a cliché
What does it matter
And did it crush your mind'
Cause I see a strange look in your eyes
And every time it's there, I paralyze
My hearts stops beating
Afraid that you leavin'
I know that I've hurt you
Believe when I say
I never meant too
Treat you this way
Deserve much better
I am such a cliché
What does it matter
I know that I've hurt you
Believe when I say
I never meant too
Treat you this way
Deserve much better
I am such a cliché
What does it matter
Do you think you're better off alone
Do you think you're better off alone
Do you think you're better off alone
Do you think you're better off alone
I know that I've hurt you

Believe when I say
I never meant too
Treat you this way
Deserve much better
I am such a cliche
What does it matter
Do you think you're better off alone
Do you think you're better off alone
