

Thank You

Nathaniel Rateliff & The Night Sweats

Spend your years
Spend your time
With all these tears
Not all were mine I just want to thank you
I just want to thank you
I just want to thank you
I just want to thank you
I just want to thank you, sweet baby, for getting me through
...
Can't hide your fears
And I can't hide mine
In spite of all this, dear
I think we're fine
I just want to thank you
I just want to thank you
I just want to thank you
I just want to thank you
I just want to thank you, pretty baby, for getting me through I was looking back there, Lord
Could have been no one else
I would have been so cold
Laying here by myself
Ever since you found me, yeah
Never be anybody else
Yeah, baby, yeah
I just want to thank you
I just want to thank you
I just want to thank you
I just want to thank you
I just want to thank you
I just want to thank you
I just want to thank you, sweet baby for getting me through
