

Nothing Left to Say / Rocks

Imagine Dragons

Who knows how long?
I been awake now
The shadows on my wall don't sleep
They keep calling me
Beckoning.
Who knows what's right?
The lies keep getting thinner
My age has never made me wise But I keep pushing on and on and on and on
There's nothing left to say now oh oh
I'm giving up, giving up he he Giving up now
I'm giving up, giving up he he
Giving up now
I'm giving up, giving up he he
Giving up now
I'm giving up, giving up he he
Giving up now
Below, my soul
I'm feel an engine
Collapsing as it sees the pain If I could only shut it out
I've come too far to see the end now
Even if my way is wrong
But I keep pushing on and on and on and on
I'm giving up, giving up he he
Giving up now
I'm giving up, giving up he he
Giving up now
I'm giving up, giving up he he
Giving up now I'm giving up, giving up he he
Giving up now
I keep fallin, I keep fallin down
I keep fallin, I keep fallin down
I keep fallin, I keep fallin down
I keep fallin, I keep fallin down
If you could only save
I'm drowning in the waters of my soul There's nothing left to say now oh oh

I'm giving up, giving up he he
Giving up now I'm giving up, giving up he he
Giving up now
I'm giving up, giving up he he
Giving up now
I'm giving up, giving up he he
Giving up now...
