

3 Days

Rhye

Oh, I'm famished.
So I'll eat your minerals
Like a rabid beast at a foolish feast
I'll steal your breath,
Like a twisted thief with a mangled glove,
It's just my nature, I ruin love
It's just my nature, I ruin loveStealing kisses in those misses within beats
Stealing kisses in those bloody sheets,
I'm killing you... I'm killing you.
There's a window in time
3 days to feel each other, crack this spine
It's gonna break, cave in on itself
Love is terminal not built to last
Burn bright, burn fast
Burn bright, burn fastStealing kisses in those misses within beats
Stealing kisses in those bloody sheets,
I'm killing you... I'm killing you.
So many ways.
So many waysWe got three days to feel each other
We got three days to sing this song
