

Versailles

Amy Stroup

This is the last time
You'll see the valley of Versailles
There are diamond skies
Love don't go, love don't go
All she thinks about
Is him who held her so close
He pleaded honestly
For king and queen to be, oh
Love don't go, love don't go
This is the last time
You'll see the valley of Versailles
There were diamond skies
