

Know By Now

Josh Wilson

So it all went wrong
I started singing that sad sad song
So convinced that I was on my own
God I know
That you won't leave
Guess I let it slip my memory
Fast as I could count to 1-2-3-forgetful meWhoa
Here I go again
Why do I forget you're always faithful
Whoa
How many times have I seen
You give me just what I need
Whoa
Here I go again
I forget you're gonna work it out somehow
You'd think that I'd know by now
Well I'd like to learn to live by faith
As the flowers of the field must say
Worry doesn't add a single day
Oh God I pray
You'll help me see
When I'm looking at my history
All the ways you've taken care of me
I wanna believe butWhoaHere I go again
Why do I forget you're always faithful
Whoa
How many times have I seen
You give me just what I need
Whoa
Here I go again
I forget you're gonna work it out somehow
You'd think that I'd know by now
That you are always in control
I should know by now
That you're gonna work it out
But this shadow of a doubt wont let me go-o-o-oHere I go again
Why do I forget you're always faithful
Whoa
How many times have I seen
You give me just what I need
Whoa
Here I go again

I forget you're gonna work it out somehow
You're gonna work it out somehow
You'd think that I'd know by now
