

Wastin' Time

Bryan Adams

I could have been a winner,
You should have taken me,
It was so damn cold I should'a held ya,
'cause you were shakin' me. Well, I almost had a question,
When she led me home,
I spent too much time for one night,
Bein' alone. She said you're wastin' time,
You're takin' a chance on me,
You're wastin' time,
You're takin' a chance on me.
I should have got the Rambler,
Back seat movie for two,
I spent too much time for one night,
Bein' alone with you. You should have seen her daddy,
'cause he said she had to go,
I spent too much time for one night,
Bein' all alone. She said you're wastin' time,
You're takin' a chance on me,
You're wastin' time,
You're takin' a chance on me. You're wastin' time,
You're takin' a chance on me,
You're wastin' time,
You're takin' a chance on me.
You're wastin' time,
Oh you're takin' a chance on me,
She said you're wastin' time,
You're takin' a chance on me.
