

It's a Little Too Late

Tanya Tucker

Well, I was up all night well wonderin' what to do,
Thinkin' that I oughta just forget about you,
But it's a little too late;
Well, it's a little too late.
When you walked in I shoulda walked out.
Well, it's a little too late to do the right thing now. Well, the whole town told me you're a heart break king;
Guess I oughta pay attention when they say those things.
Well, it's a little too late.
Well, it's a little too late.
I know all my old buddies wanna help me out,
But it's a little too late to do the right thing now.
Turn the jukebox up throw some sawdust down.
I'm too far gone to turn this heart around.
I may be wrong but I don't walk out;
Well, it's a little too late to do the right thing now. Turn the jukebox up an' throw some sawdust down.
I'm too far gone to turn this heart around.
I may be wrong but I don't walk out;
Well, it's a little too late to do the right thing now.
I was up all night well wonderin' what to do,
Thinkin' that I oughta just forget about you,
But it's a little too late;
Well, it's a little too late.
When you walked in I shoulda walked out.
Well, it's a little too late to do the right thing now. I may be wrong but I don't walk out,
Well, it's a little too late to do the right thing now.
