It's a Little Too Late

Tanya Tucker

Well, I was up all night well wonderin' what to do, Thinkin' that I oughta just forget about you, But it's a little too late; Well, it's a little too late. When you walked in I should walked out. Well, it's a little too late to do the right thing now.Well, the whole town told me you're a heart break king; Guess I ought pay attention when they say those things. Well, it's a little too late. Well, it's a little too late. I know all my old buddies wanna help me out, But it's a little too late to do the right thing now. Turn the jukebox up throw some sawdust down. I'm too far gone to turn this heart around. I may be wrong but I don't walk out; Well, it's a little too late to do the right thing now.Turn the jukebox up an' throw some sawdust down. I'm too far gone to turn this heart around. I may be wrong but I don't walk out; Well, it's a little too late to do the right thing now. I was up all night well wonderin' what to do, Thinkin' that I oughta just forget about you, But it's a little too late; Well, it's a little too late. When you walked in I should walked out. Well, it's a little too late to do the right thing now.I may be wrong but I don't walk out, Well, it's a little too late to do the right thing now.

Lyrics provided by http://counterlikes.com/