

Satellite

Charlotte OC

There's a wall, around your body
You're scared, to love somebody
There's a wall around your words That's alright with me
Yeah that's alright with me
I don't mean to cause no harm, as I sit with you in your car
I don't mean to break your heart If its not right for you, I won't fight with you I see you sitting like a satellite, but that's not really who you are
You push away when it feels right
I see you picking it apart, want it to end before it starts
You're like a rabbit in the headlights, running straight into the car
I see you sitting like a satellite, but that's not really who you are Let's not over think
Cause this boat you built is about to sink Let's not over think Cause I'm alright with this, if you don't have time for this I see you sitting
like a satellite, but that's not really who you are
You push away when it feels right
I see you picking it apart, want it to end before it starts
You're like a rabbit in the headlights, running straight into the car
I see you sitting like I satellite, but that's not really who you are I'm not here to push you, push you on a stage
I'm here to tell you, I read the same page
I'm trying to tell you, I see it for you
I'm trying to tell you I see you sitting like a satellite, but that's not really who you are
You push away when it feels right
I see you picking it apart, want it to end before it starts
You're like a rabbit in the headlights, running straight into the car
I see you sitting like a satellite, but that's not really who you are
I see you sitting like a satellite, but that's not really who you are
You push away when it feels right
I see you picking it apart, want it to end before it starts
You're like a rabbit in the headlights, running straight into the car
I see you sitting like a satellite, but that's not really who you are
