

Every Time I Look At You

Blake Shelton

It brings back an old feeling
Running into you like this
I'm really not afraid of hurting
But I can't stand the awkwardness
Do I laugh? Do I cry?
Do I dare look in your eyes? Oh no, here it goes
My hands start to shake
My heart's gonna show
Like the day we met
To the night you said, "We're through"
Every time I look at you
You seem to be a bit distracted
I wish that I could feel the same
You never were too good at acting
Baby, some things never change
I can't keep from letting go
It's something that I can't control Oh no, here it goes
My hands start to shake
My heart's gonna show
Like the day we met
To the night you said, "We're through"
Every time I look at you You stand there looking sweet and innocent
But how can you be so cruel and confident
At my expense
Oh no, here it goes
My hands start to shake
My heart's gonna show
Like the day we met
To the night you said, "We're through"
Every time I look at Oh no, here it goes
My hands start to shake
My heart's gonna blow
Like the day we met
To the night you said, "We're through"
Every time I look at you Oh yeah
Every time I look at you
