

Subtle Hustle

Clutch

Back again with a quickness, pick it up, pick it up
Master arithmeticness, light it up, light it up
I got the heat in both feets, snake handler's hands
Come back with slickness and do it all again My subtle hustle, smooth as mother's butter.
I let it ride on, I let it ride on Now I'm the media's darling, pick it up, pick it up
An international phenomenon, light it up, light it up
I cause eclipses with a wave of the hand
Let them hang in ellipses and do it all again
My subtle hustle, smooth as mother's butter
I let it ride on, I let it ride on I got your number. I steal your thunder
I got your mother's maiden name tattooed on my arm
I drive out daemons. Can I hear an Amen?
Now say my name
Lay hands on screaming heathens. And do it all again My subtle hustle, smooth as mother's butter
I let it ride on, I let it ride on
