Don't Tell Me (feat. Julie Miller & Buddy Miller)

Lee Ann Womack

Tell my heart to stop beating
Tell my mind not to think Throw a stone in the ocean
And tell that stone not to sinkTell the world to stop turning around
Tell the sky not to be so blue
Tell the rain to stop falling down like tears
But don't tell me to stop loving you
Don't tell me to stop loving you
Tell the past to be forgotten
Tell my life not to exist
Tell a pomise made to be unspoken
And my lips not to have them kissedTell the world to stop turning around
Tell the sky not to be so blue
Tell the rain to stop falling down like tears
But don't tell me to stop loving you
Don't tell me to stop loving youNo I can't do it, I cant stop its something that love have seen only the broken hearted know the way I feel Tell the world to stop turning around
Tell the sky not to be so blue
Tell the rain to stop falling down like tears
Don't tell me to stop loving you
