

Free

Sarah Brightman

And do you still touch her like you do
Kiss her all over in the way I kissed with you
And when you sleep with her do you sometimes think of me
Not if you love her in the way I see I had to be free

Had to be free

It's all that I wanted I wanted to see

Wanted to be

Alone if I needed

I had to be free

Had to be free

From feelings that haunted I wanted to see

Wanted to be

Free

And then in the evening light when the bars of freedom fall

I watch the two of you in the shadows on the wall

And when the darkness steals some of the choices from my hand

Then will I begin to understand
