Welcome Me

Indigo Girls

welcome me to your city of angels devil prophets still hold my hand i walked your stillborn streets for hours ethnic echoes spitting out their trials they tell me i'll be the first to praise the sun the first to praise the moon the first to hold the lone coyote the last to set it freewelcome me to a haven given it's well received into my open arms oh i ran in my sleep through shaking tremors i felt the splitting earth echoing in my ears i feel it i'll be the first to praise the sun the first to praise the moon the first to hold the lone coyote the last to set it free welcome me to your city of angels there's a devil monkey laying on our backs now tell me where's the heart where's the bullet for breaking who's gonna give me a weapon a pacifying weapon i need it i'll be the first to praise the sun the first to praise the moon oh the first to hold the lone coyote the last to set it free i'll be the first to praise the sun i said i said welcome me the first to praise the moon oh the first to hold the lone coyote the last to set it free i said welcome me
