ZZ Ward

I don't need another taste of your lips
To know I'm home when we're lying here like this
The world could end today, the sun could just fall
Here in this bed we made, we're safe from it all.
When nobody believes me, I know you will
When nobody can reach me, I know you will
When nobody can please me, I know you will, whoa
You get me, you get me home
You get me, you get me home
With you, I know I'm home.
We don't need my father to give his blessing
We don't match on paper but it don't mean a thing
When all my walls cave in, you pull me through it
When there's a gun at me, you'd take the bullet.
I'm crazy, I get mean but baby, you adore me
Shut it down, I get mine, my soldier right by side
My fire, you feed it, give it to me when I need it
I'm all yours so take me, good god, this love's amazing.
When nobody believes me, I know you will
When nobody can reach me, I know you will
When nobody can please me, I know you will, whoa
You get me, you get me home
You get me, you get me home
You get me, you get me home
You get me, you get me home
With you, I know I'm home
With you, I know I'm home.
