

Oxygen

Closure

I can't sit back and watch
You jump in the deep end
With him as your oxygen
Cause it's a long way to fall
When you sink to the bottom
Hoping he'll change again You're drowning in tears
And how can you breathe
Underwater
Believe those lies much longer
He cheats you, deceives you
With heavy hands he holds you
So cold, with a heart of fool's gold
Caught in the undertow
You'll always be the one
To say there's no black and white
I must be color blind
Cause it's a long way to fall
When you sink to the bottom
Leaving it all behind You're drowning in tears
And how can you breathe
Underwater
Believe those lies much longer
He cheats you, deceives you
With heavy hands he holds you
So cold, with a heart of fool's gold
Caught in the undertow And I know it's hard
To see through it now
Cause he says he'll change
As he's pulling you down
Underwater
Believe those lies much longer
He cheats you, deceives you
With heavy hands he holds you
So cold, with a heart of fool's gold
Caught in the undertow
He cheats you, deceives you
Caught in the undertow
He cheats you, deceives you
Caught in the undertow
He cheats you, deceives you I can't sit back and watch
You jump in the deep end

With him as your oxygen
